HUNTERS FOR THE HUNGRY - GOOD NEWS & BAD NEWS

Published: 22 December 2018

In the H4H recent Newsletter, the processors all around the state are reporting that the number of deer being donated is up! In some areas as much as three times as many. They have the opportunity to reach or possibly even exceed their goal of providing 1.3 million serving of venison.

The Bad News - they have lost two major grants this year. One being Walmart, who has been donating $50,000 through a state giving program, has discontinued their state grant program. The other one, is Altria Company Employee Community Fund. H4H were not chosen to receive a grant this year as they have over the last 12 years. The grant ranged between $20,000 and $40,000.

They are asking your support and help by sending your donation(s), purchase of merchandise or buying raffle tickets! For further details, go to their website is www.h4hungry.org or email them at hunt4hungry@cs.com.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FROM PARKER BOWS STAUNTON, VA

Parker Bows has made the difficult decision to cease operations. We have explored what we believe to be all possible options to continue operations in one form or another but to no avail. It has truly been an honor to have been a part of your hunting seasons for over two decades. And it is hard to put into words what your loyalty and support has meant to us.

Effective as of the date of this post (December 17, 2018), all Parker and Red Hot branded products sold will be without a warranty regardless of statements on the packaging or in owner's manuals. We will make every effort to honor existing warranty claims for items received at our Staunton, Virginia headquarters on or before December 31, 2018. Before returning any item for warranty service, please call 540-337-5426 to speak with a customer service representative and obtain a Return Authorization Number. Items received after December 31, 2018 will be refused.

As we wind down our operations, please check our website, social media pages, future emails and with your local dealer for special offers and announcements.

Dear Santa,

I already have everything I could possibly wish for this year. Got my family, good friends and LOVE. Please take care of those who need you. THANK YOU!! XX

NFAA News

Hello from Headquarters!

For many of us the weather has changed and it's time to move indoors. This issue includes information for your 2019 Indoor Sectional Tournament, indoor archery tips, and some holiday ideas. We also have our Rod White podcasts for those of you braving the weather to hunt.
